11 10 68 PARE ROW, NEW YORK TUESDAY EVENING, NOV. 29.

BUBBCRIPTIONS TO THE EVENING WORLD adjournment of three days. The Court granted a week's time. The ostensible (Including Postages: cause for which delay was sought was that the Assistant District-Attorney acting in the case had failed to procure the butered at the Post-Office at New York as second

FF BRANCH OFFICEN; WORLD UPTOWN OFFICE-1287 BPOADWAY, letween Sistand 32d ats., New York.
WORLD HARLLM OFFICE-1201M St. AND

Madrios Ave. BRUGKLYN-309 Washington St. 4 MILADELPHIA, PA.-LEDGER BUILDING, 112 10th Str. WASHINGTON-610 14 th St. THE WORLD will not water any circum stomes, hold itself responsible for the return ground might yet be discovered upon a said-heeping of any rejected manuscripts which the organization could seem to rest Acegreptions will be made to this rule with regard to either letters or inclosures. Nor will the editor enter into correspondence con-

NEARLY

FIFTY MILLION "WORLDS.

During the four months WORLD printed and cir-culated 48,183,317 newss, as follows:

> July 11,779,526 August. . . 12,048,984 September . 12,507,295 October . . 11,847,512 Total . . . 48,183,317 Average per day. . . . The average daily circula-tion of THE WORLD for he four months of the Hal campaign in the last four elections is 1884.............91,537 1888......277.474 4892.....391.734

The Evening World Prints Asso clated Prope Nows.

November hasn't forgotten all its old reather tricks.

The postmen's fair seems to be stamped for a success, which is quite right.

That warships may bereafter coal at sea does not imply that they will take to sea Mr. CLEVELAND has lost seven pounds election.

already on his outing. He and the ducks will presently be in fine training. That Loubet Cabinet in France was not the wear and tear of nine months. committee of censors will pass on the and carry out the exact policy the popular will in Boston, hereafter. It has will has condemned. been found that the burlesque billboard In 1890, the Republican policy pursued artists stick at nothing. The brief days between this and and decided manner. The verdict of the Christmas should be fruitful ones for the ballot-box was rendered against it. Yet

Fund which is to provide well laden the Republican Congress, backed by the trees for the poor children. That Chicago highwayman has held up of the measures which were the most obeman on one of his latest dashes. jectionable to the people. Is it too late to warn the Windy City to lock the front door of her City Hall? It is a pity that Storm King Mountain could not launch a few effective thunder-bolts on the heads of the advertising agents who have disfigured its noble

Probably Murderer Hallinges, in Jersey City, is the only man whose plea of guilty ever served so successfully to prolong his life, after earning him a sentence

Two capitalists who have been helping to back the experimenters in rainmaking perhaps are beginning to lose faith in Dragn-FORTH. Those who never had the faith may congratulate themselves on having nothing to lose.

French politicians are evidently not ade of the same tough material as their American rivals. In France a Cabinet ives up office rather than allow a hostile igation. In this country the Quays ad Davenports who have been investigated to their discredit are given the management of political campaigns.

ingara County farmer drew his money maybe you wouldn't be on hand, girl com the bank, spent what he could and You bet you would, every one of you. whates to his children to "blow in fore the catastrophe. His language. sen Monday morning found the earth boy in Michigan named CARLETO me has been walking to school and every day since the term opened, seth the distance to the nearest was goven and a half miles. Ad-not his pluck have given him a rail-read mileage book, and he now rider part HERE IS CORPS NO. I. of the way. It is safe to say that Master HERE IS CORPS NO. I. CARLETON PARKER will make his way

JUBILICE STILL DELAYED.

parents by the Gerry Soc ety for the alleged prevention of cruelty to children.

the Gerryites yesterday asked a further perform the ducies of his office, has been Little Jon's parents are not wealthy.

His tather has to lose something from his wages every time he is compelled to appear in court. Every delay is a hardship to him as a laboring man. The Gerry Society is rich and complacent.

It is not compelled to figure co ely on lost dollars and diverted hours.

It can afford delay. But the question may be forced home very soon to this wealthy, autocratic organization whether it can, or shall longer afford to dely the law and delay justice to the poor

under the form of prosecuting a phinau-

THE COLL COMBINE.

investigate the coal couspiracy is in daily session in this city. The Presidents of the coal companies and railroads conerned in the combination have been examined, as well as some of their agents.

but as yet little has been discovered regarding the secret doings of the conspirators. The chie's of the combine either little success. The legal proceedings in New Jersey seem to have come to a halt.

and the conspirators treat the orders of Nevertheless, coal which sold in New

There is as much coal in the country

now as there was a year ago. At the retail price of $5 a tou the coal barons and railroad corporations grew wealthy. To add to their millions they entered into this unholy combination to restrict the supply and force up the price. Their greed suggested the movement. There

In there no remedy for this outrage

Are the courts, the Congress and State

Legislatures powerless to protect the peo-

RESSIONS OF CONGRESS

Speaker Carsy declares in favor of s

Constitutional Amendment changing the time for the meeting of Congress, and providing that a new Congress shall take its seat within a few months after its

At present a newly chosen Congress does not get to work until more than a session should be called. Meanwhile the signally repudrated by the people, holds three months' session and may pursue by the Billion Dollar Congress met thus popular condemnation in a very marked vigorously to force on the country some

If the popular will is to be made effect

tive, the change suggested by Speaker

Carse ought to be made.

the rates of this necessary of life.

ple from these public robbers?

was no legitimate necessity for any rise in York last year for $5 a ton, retail, now costs from $5.75 to $6.25 a ton.

the courts with contempt.

efuse to answer the questions of the

The Congressional Committee raised to its case-thropic work.

facts.

atable p'ece of furniture. It only stood old Congress, which may have been 391.734

It Was Organized by Little In the case of little Jez MILITOL Sammie Fleischer. wrongly and cruelly kept from his

> " Ne: I Nelson " Gives the Little Ones Deserved Praise.

The Christmas-Tree Fund Is Grow l'olice Justice's return to a copy of the original commitment of little Joz. It ing Splendidly. was urged on the other side, in vain, that the original papers were held by the District-Attorney and ought to carry as World," Pulitzer Building.

All parcels or packages containing de-nations of tays, ciething, books, or other articles, about be addressed to the Manager "Evening World's" Christmas on record as one in which justice is dein ed tecause a public servant, paid to guilty of peglecting his business. The true explanation of the dolay, however, is undoubtedly that it was the outcome of a tactical move on the part of the atubborn pennds weight and under, addressed as

Gerry Fociety, made in the hope that above, free of charge, ground might yet be discovered upon which the organization could seem to rest liver packages free of charge on notifica-

THE SUBSCRIPTIONS.
THE EVENING WORLD	€100.00
Previously acknowledged	189.30
Hundred and Twenty-fourth street	6,00
Pauline Farrens Ru an 1	2.00
All the Little Schoors	2.00
Helen A. Stevens,	1.03
Helen R	1.00
Willie and Vivian Van Siekle	1.00
F. O. R	1,00
Helen	.50
Ruth	.50
В. И	.50
L. E. F	.50
Harry F. Zimmer and others	.27
F. W. S	. 25
Mary and Tom	.20
Charles K	. 20
Adr:an and Albert Grasselly	.15
William Cruviel	.10
A. F. U	-10
Willie Stevens Dunn	. 10
Josie and Barbris Egert	.10
Z	.10
Viola Lindsey	.10
Joe Bloch
Ridney Bleed
Five Nagel children	.05
Bol Hestman	.03
Here they come :
Clear the way and let Christmas Con	PS NO. 1

Committee or plead ignorance of the off with your bats and up with your voices The Committee of the State Senate. and make the air ring with the praises of with Gen. McManox at its bead, has also these little volunteers been searching for the truth, but with

SANUEL PLRISCHER. . three small girls, six little men and a baby in the corns: their banners are lying, their badges are shining, and their battle song is-

Ha! ha! ha! You and me. Little Christmas Tree,

It is a matter of sincere regret that the not be printed for the whole world to admire.

CHUISTMAN TREE COUPS BADGE Commander-in-Chief Samuel Fleischer influence of the Presidential office, strove thought it would be impossible to get young cate piece of dentistry work on hand, and There is no objection to the publication of ter that gave them first place in the Grand rmy of Peace and Good Will.

Here it is. Let everybody read and heed it Christmas-Tree Corps No. 1.

at 80 East One Hundred and Sixteenth stree

We will be proud to wear the badges."

Who knows where the "Little Defenders are keeping themselves? Will some old reader of THE EVENING WORLD please call their attention to that one sentence? It may rouse them from the apathy that threaten

ROYAL BARING POWDER CO., 106 Wall St., N.Y.

Twentieth street Grammar School.

THE NORTH DAKOTA GLIDE. There is a new midwinter style of We, the boys and girls of the Hermione dopement. North Dakota is responsible 80 Kast One Hundred and Sixteenth street for it. A young man wants to marry the laciose $5 for the Christmas-Tree Corps girl of his choice, but his mother objects, badges, and trust you will find many more to The parents of the prospective bride are wear the badges.

SANUEL FIRITGERER,
ARMAND MANSELL.

SILVIA NERWITTEN.

HOOTE SO,

HOOT anxious for the marriage and announce their intention to help the young couple to elope. The elopement thus prearranged and plentifully advertised, will take place in a few days-or a few nights,

Isn't it just too lovely, girls? To be sure, it does look a little like taking the edge off the sensation to set an hour for an elopement. It knocks the astonishment out of it, just like sending around word to a family that you intend to give them a surprise party at 10 o'clock next Wednesday night.

But the novelty of the thing, girls! The delight of receiving a card which will read: "Mr. and Mrs. Van Skateoff request the pleasure of your presence a the elopement of their daughter with Mr. Gus Gonsyouplease at 11.80 P. M. Friday, Convinced that the comet was to smash Dec. 2, 1892, from the corner of Skip the earth to smithercens, a penurious street and Disappearance avenue." And maybe you wouldn't be on hand, girls !

Messra. GLEASON and SANFORD baving both been sworn in, Long Island City may be assumed to have filled the may present the spectacle of two Mayors sole atmosphere with shooting stars of with but a single thought: How to keep the office.

Solved at Last. Mother—Dear me, are you through shopsing? How did you manage to get back so of all in teavening strength.—Latest United States Government P. od Report.

their usefulness. Those little tender hearts can't be dispensed with. Their influence is valuable aside from their services. Boys and girls whose sympathies go out to the dumb creatures have it in their power to make human beings unspeakably happy. And they are herewith invited, one and all, to form a Christmas Corps and join the grand army of merry-making.

Then there are the little St. Nicks. Some ody poke them up, gently, with, say a stick of candy, please,

Now, sleepy heads, don't you know that you have a reputation for doing good and that you ire expected to maintain it?

You owe it to yourself and the community at large. It wen't do for you to drop out of the lanks. You must not only keep up with the procession, but you must carry a banner and wear a shining badge on your breast. There should be ten Christman Corps of Little St. Nicks and the same number of Little De fenders before another week passes. That trict-Afterney and, ought to carry as much weight as a copy.

Accepting the cause given in court for saking the adjournment, the case must go world," Pulltzer Building.

Letters containing money for the would add 200 names to the army list, 200 boys and give 200 boys and give 200 boys and give the right to wear a medal of honor. Each corps is expected to subscribe 25. Each corps is expected to subscribe #5.

That means 50 cents earned or collected by each of the ten members. In suggesting the plan of forming corps the child's taken into consideration. He will have fun. ne will extend his circle of acquaintances make new friends and have the benefit o their society. These circles of ten are just right for little ciubs, fea parties, Friday night entertainments. Saturday games and after-school candy pulls. "At any one of them a dollar could be collected very readily.

Six little Brooklyn girls made out a set of ten rules, imposing a five cents une for breaking them, and in one hour there was not a whole rule on the list. The 50 cents was contributed to the Christmas Fund. In an accompanying note the judge wrote "that it afforded lots of amusement."

On occasions of this sort it is advisable to invite married folks. Boys and girls are good. They never make mistakes. But a joily father is sure to blunder and get caught. Mothers have poor memories, and big sisters-well, make a rule against giggling and bitting your lips and those light-hearted, coquettian creatures will be bankrupt fifteen minutes after the rules are enforced.

Whatever you do do at once. Christman will be here in twenty-five days, and it is dangerous to delay matters. If you can't your children. Be purely impersonal, and ecome a decorated subscriber and wear the order of the holly and evergreen then join quently, through a course of calls, becomes the ranks of the modest majority and con-scandal that has been lostered and nurtured tribute to the Baby Ruth Christmas Tree by the changing chit-chat until the story has whatever you can conveniently spare. The grown from nothing to be a something of for-children are beginning to write for tickets. Midable proportions, yet with but a thread They look to you for merry Christmas; they of foundation. Then when you start to go, go. depend upon you for the only pleasures the It is not necessary to make a wild dive for the day will bring them, their confidence in you exit, but when once you have announced is sublime and it must be sustained. You can your intention of departing, do not hang on make their trusting little bearts swell with happiness and beat like trip-hammers. Don't miss tuis exquisite chance to do good and not get found out.

In the mean Use, it will be well to gather up all the story teoks, playthings and cloth-ing you have no urther use for, and send them to 95 Fifth a use, the Christmas Fund headquarters. Make these contributions as tidy as you can, for there will be a tremen-dous growd at the Baby stuth Tree, and if a streak of luck does not come pretty soon the majority will have no other material of great foy. Such a calamity will not come to pass if the good St. Nicks and the dear Defenders rally rouse the Christmas Tree and follow where Corps No. 1 leads.

Wishes Them a Good Time.

Inclosed 10 cents is for the Christmas-Tree Fund. Seping the little children will have a nappy time as rell as others that have a Earned at School.

Inciened find 10 cents, which I received rot my mother for a testimonial at school. I give it to buy a present for some poor child.
William Crovini, 895 Righth avenue.

A Bubecriber.

To the Fall. r.
Inclosed find 20 cents for the Christmas Tree from a structiber. CHAS. K. Two Little Republicans.

We are two little Republicans trying to would amount to dollars and would give joy to many a tot on Chris mas Day. Apaida and Albert Grasskilly, 159 East One Hundrod and Thirteenth street.

We regret than we cannot send more than 20 cents for the Christmas-Tree Fund, but hope that even this small sum will gladden the hears of some poor child. 180 Gold street, Brooklyn.

From Mary and Tom.

Is Will Help. To the Relitor I send 25 cents to the Baby Ruth Christmas-Tree, hoping that it will make some sed find at cents for the Christmas Free, from a substriber. I. R. S. Bayonne, N. J.

F. W. S., 716 Columbus avenue. A Becond Contribution.

Six Little Collectors. Inclosed please find 27 cents that we col-ected for the Baby Ruth Tree.

HARRY F. ZIMMER,
AMBLIA B. NOLL,
KATIE ZIMMER,
FRANCES ZIEMER,
LILLIE ZIMMER,
JACOB S. ZIMMER,
JACOB S. ZIMMER,
BY EWEN STREET,
BY EWEN STREET

For the Good Work To the Editor Inclosed you will please find 50 cents for the Baby Ruth Christmas Tree. I hope you will be crowned with success in your good works. B. H. Little Sammie Fleischer, the organizer of the first corps, is only eleven years old. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Fielscher, live Six-Year-Old Ruth. and the boy attends the One Hundred and > 50 cents for the Children's Christmas Tree.

> I hope it will help make some child happy.
> RUTH. For Some Poor Child.

I am a little girl six years old, and I send inclosed find to cents for some poor child. Several Christmas-Tree letters have been omitted to-day for want of space. They will appear to-morrow.

The maids of honor to the new Lady Mayoress of London at the Gdildhall festivities wore sees of rich white slik, with pink sleeves, vest, sash and rolled edge to the skirt, pink band to the hair. A child that represented England was dressed in pink spotted net over pink Bengaline. Bouquet of roses. The trimming consists of ribbon and small pink roses. The child that represented Ireland wore a dress of pale green spotted net over green silk trimmed with ribbon and shamrock. Shamrock bouquet.

When You Go to Call.

Do not directly you arrive contrive to touch on all the personal infirmities of the house held of your hostess, or hold forth the misae meanors of your servants or the illness of rule of using the brush in the grain of the your children. Be purely impersonal, and by doing so you avoid gossip which frethe threshold repeating a dozen times "I really must go," yet commencing a fresh recital that will necessitate at least twenty minutes more lingering. After all, good breeding will tell any one intuitively what should be said or done in any place.

Sabots on the Table.

Wooden sabots, such as are worn in Brittany, are a modish ornament on a work table They are enamelled and fitted with the inused as a socol-box or catch-all of one sort or Corn Pone.

Mix a teaspoonful each of sugar and salt with a pint of granulated meal, and scald with a pint of boiling water. Let it stand until it swells and becomes lukewarm, then add a half-ounce cake of compressed yeast. lved in little cold water. If too stiff ie duce the dough with warm water to a consist bake till thoroughly dope, in a moderately hot but it is very nice toasted after it is a day old. Home-made can be used instead of compressed yeast, but it requires so long for the pone to rise when mixed with ordinary home-made yeast that it is generally slightly sour when

Baked Not Cooked. A practical cook in speaking of the methods of the French, says that a secret of their suc cess is in having a knowledge of the variety instead of being cooked they

Wash the Lemons.

thus rendered tasteless.

Not many people stop to think about it, bu he outside of a lemon is anything but clear If you will look at it you will see some tiny black spots, like scales, all over it. These lady, and, although roomy and comfortable are the eggs of an insect, and if the lemon is is not pretty, while Empress Eugenie, once not washed they are likely to become an deaning all the lemons I use with a small | the days of her reign at the Tulieries. scrub-brush kept for the purpose, then dropping them into a dish of water to remain for five or ten minutes before using. It is a little trouble, but I am very fond of having things clean, especially the things I eat.

Fifteen.

The young girl of fifteen is over a very diffiut young person to dress, but she would be one of the most perverse of her kind did she rall to look well in a frock like that seen in the picture. The blouse of red bengaline is gathered very full, the sleeves have double puffs, and the skirt, which is cut in the corselet style and made of a red and green material edged round the top with a band of black before it is laid away. A good plan is to have one end of the table neatly covered with zinc, upon which the hot vessels may be placed. In scrubbing the table observe the use sand and cold water. The excessive use of soap makes the wood gray and dingy. The kitchen table should have its corner

Penseiver.

The penwiper can be made as a book. The book when folded should be about lour by five inches and can be made of one piece, five by eight inches, or two pieces of four by five inches each, over-sewn down the back. The inside seaves are smaller and can be made of any desirable material for wipin pens. The edges of the chamois back are left plain or very slightly waved or scalloped, but plain is test. A ribbon is taken through the nside and tied in the centre of the back ency sufficient to retain its form when put and where the back is in one piece the inside in the baking pan. Let it rise at a tempera- | leaves are fastened by the ribbon to the back, ture of 75 degrees for four or five hours, then a few stitches being placed with sewing sik. where needed, to keep in place. Where the back is made of two pieces, leaves and back can be fastened together by over-sewing with thick slik or fine cord, so that it looks like lacing somewhat. In a previous year this shape usually had the legend. "Extracts from the pen of" on one back and the name or monogram on the other. This could be varied by using another motto, such as "Unpublished works of" and the name on the other side. Corn Crusts.

We are two little Republicans trying to of food, pienty of time to prepare it, and a Scald a pint of granulated cornment, into help you in your kind work. If every one slow fire. With meals cooked so rapidly as which a teaspooniul each of sugar and salt would think as much of the poor little tota as we are in the habit of doing-by hot fire-the have been mixed, with a pint of boiling we do and send a few pannies every penny juices do not have the opportunity to cook- water. When sufficiently cool stir in a wellegg, spread thin in a greased pan and bake till a nice brown in a quick oven. A tablespoonful of melted butter may be added for shortening if desired.

Royal Fret.

Queen Victoria's shoe is that of a gouty old the leader of the feminine fashion of the civ. ingredient in whatever dish the lemon is used | nized world, has now dispensed with those for. For years I have made the practice of high heels which she was went to affect in The Queen of Portugal, like her mother tesse de Paris, has feet that in poin of size and shape are in keeping with their masculine, ways and appearance. For one would scarcely expect a woman who smokes such huge and strong cigars as the Comtesse de Paris to own a dainty and elegant foot. Princess May of Teck's small foot is inherited from her handsome father, the Duke of Teck, a man formerly renowned for his good looks, though not for his morals. The feet of the Princess of Wales, as wel as those of her daughters and her sister, the Czarina of Russia, are narrow and long, but lack the arched instep necessary to endov

Queen Marguerite, of Italy, whose per nobby is collecting slippers and shoes of famous women of past ages, has, like all Italian women, a large and somewhat grace less foot.

Grape Jam.

Separate the skins from the pulp and place in different saucepans. Let the skins simmer on the back of the range with water enough to cover them. Cook the pulps till oft with a little water, then press through a colander. Add the strained pulp to the skins, with three-quarters of a pound of sugar for every pint of grapes. Boil till thic and Jelly-like. Corn Dodgers.

Mix a teaspoonful each of sugar and sait with a quart of granulated cornmeal, and scald with boiling water until a paste is formed sufficiently stiff to retain its shape without spreading when placed upon the griddle. Mould with the hands into cakes three or four inches in diameter and half an nch in thickness, put a nit of butter abou the size of a pea where each cake is to be placed upon the griddle and as soon as meited lay the cake upon it. Fill the gri dle in this manner with cakes, and when they are brown on the lower side place s mall bit of butter on each of them, turn The Ritchen Table.

A clean kitchen table is the pride of a neat housekeeper, and nothing can be more abnoying to such a one than to have it serve as meat board and chopping tray, or as a resting place for hot bettles and gream pans. To protect it during the process of mesting should be thoroughly draned and well drant when he griddle or a pan in the strangering can be based authrely on a griddle or a pan in the strangering can be based in thirty or gridle, cover it with white objects. This should be thoroughly draned and well drant when hand a larger time. The heat under and bisetting to look at.

But when he cried, "Come, let us wed," She only hung her basing head With a hunc, hunc, hunc, hunc, hunc; hunc, hunc, hunc, hunc; hund; here we fance. It should be reasoned to the griddle and browned on both sides, the cakes can be transferred to a baking-pan and finished in heat with picket maturitiums, at an editoring to look at.

the griddle or pan should be moderate so as not to scorch the dodgers, and they may be turned several times if necessary to brown

Perfet Griddle-Cakes.

These cold, frosty mornings are suggestive is would be well to revive the old custom of bor of the family frying his own cake and cating it on the apot, allowing no time to be lost between the griddle and the mouth. In greating the griddle—which must ing silve to tell the story, be hot—use the smallest quantity of fat, and — It would seem that a well-known resident of be careful not to have the fat settle in pools. If it should do so, the cakes will not brown evenly, nor will they have that flannel-like texture which is one of the attractions of the griddle-cake. Always grease the griddle

Grape Sauce. A very delicious table sauce is grape catsup

To make this pick seven pounds of grapes off the stems and, after washing them, boll them in a porcelain kettle until they are soft enough to strain through a wire sieve. They should cook at least an hour. When they have been strained, add to the pulp three and a half pounds of sugar. a pint of the best cider vinegar, a teaspoonful each of cinnamon and loves and cook the mixture until it is thick. Saving the Hands.

If it is necessary to have the hands in soap suds for any length of time, as on cleaning and washdays-to keep them white and soft washing in clean water. MENU WEDNESDAY, NOV. 30. PREAKPAST. Baked Apple Broiled Calf's Liver. Tomato Sauce. Oranges and Bangurs. Cocol.

DINNER. Tomato Soup.
Breiled Thick Silce of Hailbut.
Par-lee Sauce.
Plain Rolled Putstoss.
Stared Cabbags.
Lettuce Saind, Franch Dressing Hot Apple Pie.

....... Roman Punch.

Reman Punch.

Two quarts of water, one pound of sugar, five lemons, one-balf pint of Jamaica rum.

Boil the sugar and water together for fitteen minutes. Take it from the fire and when perfectly gold add the juice of the lemons.

Our readers would be foolish indeed if they do not follow Mr. Wilson's advice, if they are sick rule in in a freezer, and when about half Put it info a freezer, and when about half frozen add the rum. Let the punch stand in the freezer parked in ice for two hours before Grannice' Muffe in Pashion Appin.

The smartest thing to do with the muff is to wear it hung round the neck suspended by a long, stender gold or enter chain. Those yards of chain attached to which our mothers and grandmothers were wont to wear their watches, when a watch was regarded as quite a presention in the way of lewelry, can be prettily utilized in this way.
It seems at last an accomplished fact that mulfs are large enough, to stow away one's hands in. We have been promised them of a sensible sky, for several Winters, but now at inat they are adopted, and the silly little things into which we could only thrust our fingers are out of date. To be amart one must have a real cozy "granny" muff. The prettiest are of sable, lined with rich, handsome brocade and perumed. They are so dainty, so warm coatly looking that they have an sirof distinction all to themselves spart from the general effect of their owner's tollet.

Skirts.

Double skirts are with us, although they are not generally received with enthusiasm. However, some leaders of fashion are adopting them. Skirts are no longer drawn tight, in the trying fashion that they have been worn, across the front of the figure. These looser, fuller aktirts are certain to prepare the way for the overdresses that are not yet accepted, but are certain to be a little further on. With the fuller skirts are beginning to be used, atthough as jet surreptitiously, lit tie bustle cushions filled with hair. Indeed those wills in matters fashionable declare that the hoopskirt will be with us within the next eighteen months. In fact, an evening lady who has been sojourning in Paris, which will soon be seen at a fashionable function. I quite full enough as to the skirt to be worn over a farthingair. It is of amethyst velvet and is confined at the waist by a cincture of iridescent jewelled passementerie. toot of the akirt is finished with a simple frii and the bodice is cut with a V back and front.

The Cleverest of Plat. Young Piggy-Wiggy was a beau, At least young ladies told him so. For he could skate, and he could row. And he could play the old banjo With a thump, thump, thump!

Well pleased were they that had the chance young Piggy-Wiggy dance, And end by standing on his head. "You clever, clever dear !" they said, With a grunt, grunt, grunt!

Now, this intelligent young pig Approved of sweet Miss Nancy Tig;

ALMOST BEYOND BELIEF.

Things Often Happen That We Can Scarcely Credit.

This is One of them, and We Give it to Our Readers.

It May Seem Remarkable, But We Know that It Is All True.

A strange tale comes to us from Chemplain, N. Y., where the principal in this absorbingly interesting account came very near not now be-the town, Barney Wilson by name, fell ill. Now, illness is a common thing, but not so that of Mr. Wilson, as he says himself, now that the danger "I cannot describe how I felt or what I an ffered.

'It seemed to be at first mostly in my bead. I could not think easily, my head felt dull and strange, and I was tired and weak all over. "I knew my nerves were weak and prosurated, that I had dyspepsia terribly; why, I could scarcely est anything from one day to and "I could not sleep nights, and woke mornings feeling weak, tired and dragged out. It came near being my death stroke, I tell you, and we did not know what the end would be "Can you believe it, I lived and suffered like this for a whole year !

MR. BARNEY WILSON. MR. BARNEY WILSON.

"And then, when I had become about hopeles, I saw the advertisement of a medicine, Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy. I procured some of the druggist at once, and before I had taken two bottles I was so much better that I was sutpoished!

"I continued its use, and now I am feeling as well and sound as I ever was in my life. I can truly cay that had it not been for Dr. Greene's or out of order, for it is a sure thing that this re-markable remedy cures. Besides it is purely vegetable and harmless. The great physician and specialist in nervous and chronic diseases Dr. Greene, of 35 West 14th st., New York, dis-covered it, and he and other physicians pre-scribe and recommend it. The doctor also can be consulted free of charge in regard to any case personally or by letter.

Nervura blood and nerve remedy I should now

WORLDLINGS.

In Austria there was recently a great cele-bration of the eightieth birthday of Count Man-milian O'Donnell, who so gallantly protected the Emperor from assacination in February, 1854, when His Majesty was stabbed in he neck. monarch in Europe.

The first patent issued by the United States Government was for an invention for making pearl sakes. The Chinese Empire occupies an area of 5,000,000 square miles and lation of nearly 450,000,000. There is a local tradition among the people who live near Mount Ararat that that famous peak is guarded by an unearthly being who re-their wheels.

VACRANT VERSES.

A Long-Drawn Sigh.

In all those gentle ways some trick of Sature did comine to her;

In true robility of neart,

which cannot be desired to herand in the pisy of coquetry

That now and then conceals it;

In half-unspoken sympathy,

so subtle -yet one feels it.

no succe—yet one reels it.

In all her merry fivists of gladness,
In all that rippling laurater,
The pleased glancs, the touch of sadness
The pleased glancs, the touch of sadness
In all that houset dumlity
That wreathes a crown above her,
There is such sweet congruing that, how could I but love her!

—145.

The Prohibitionist. I cannot take a drink, for I abhor the vine; But often I induse in just a little whine.

Horrible. Now how will my Phyllis regard this, I wonder? The printer has made a most horrible blunner. In my poem, "the dewdrops from freship In my poem, "the dewdrops from freshty blown roses"

Be a twisted to "dewdrops from freshly blown noses."

Pack.

cation. Good hotel, large rooms, comfortable bed, excellent board, and no mosquitoes. Mr. Berkshire lenox (as he leaves them)— That gentleman comes of a very old family. Miss Add.e Rondack -- Yes; Ananias and No Alternative.

Prom the Clothier and Purnisher. 1 Bingo-I'd like to know what you call these thirts you got me ?

om of movement. Bingo—Then give me death.

BRILL BROS. SHOERS,

CALF SKIN. CORM HOLE, LACE OR CONGRESS, THOROUGHLY MADE. COMPORTABLE AND

BRILL BROS., MEN'S OUTFITTERS.

In a Direct Line. Mr. G. W. Ochitree-I had a delightful va-

Mrs. Bingo (sweetly)—They are called The Liberty shirt, my dear, on account of free

HEALTHY.

47 Cortlandt St.